Montgomery Streets could be instead put back on the tax roll. DeMuth inquired about the finances of the library project. At the May 5th council meeting, Mikrut-Gilles expressed concerns of when there is a lockdown at one of the Dodgeville schools, and asked if her childcare center could be included in notifications of when this is occurring, so that they can secure their facility, and protect the children/staff safely. Mikrut-Gilles noted that after the council meeting on May 5th, Chief Wilhelm contacted officer Joe Pepper, and Officer Pepper will join the childcare center's June staff meeting, to address safety concerns.

Owners of the Pine Ridge Motel and Best Western hotel were in attendance expressing concerns about the new TRU Hotel coming to the City of Dodgeville and asked for council not to approve this new hotel, due to the risk of current hotel owners losing business.

Dodgeville resident Wendy Nipple expressed concerns to the council of still not having an ADA coordinator on staff for the City of Dodgeville. Nipple reports that she received an email from HR director Grace Gervasi indicating number of employees for the City of Dodgeville, both full time, part-time, and seasonal, and states due to the current number of staff within the City of Dodgeville, the City is non-compliant of having an ADA coordinator. Nipple also voiced concerns with why it took so long to complete the handicapped access ramp at the new city hall, and while she was appreciative that the city now had one, asked why this was not completed until March 2026, when the new city hall moved in in October 2025. Nipple asked council that when they begin hosting council meetings via zoom, to make sure that the city takes into effect those who are visually and hearing impaired.
